

I urge you to retain the current ownership rules. Do not ammend the rules on June 2, 2003 -- or after -- in any way which might allow further privatization of the public airwaves. As stewards of the public interest it is the commission's duty to safeguard this resource, not to give it away for private gain, or to further personally enrich Chairman powell or his father.